

Voluntary Farm Bill Conservation Programs

Funding is Now Available for LIVESTOCK POND IMPROVEMENTS

through the USDA-Natural Resources Conservation Service's Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP)

Application Deadline is December 20, 2013

Please contact the Alameda County Conservation Partnership
3585 Greenville Rd Suite 2, Livermore CA, 94550
925-371-0154

More information available at www.acrcd.org

Applicants must own or operate agricultural land in Alameda County or in the Upper Alameda Creek Watershed (northeast Santa Clara County). Applicants must meet eligibility requirements for EQIP.

Additional funds may also be available through the Coastal Conservancy to increase the

Other Rangeland practice are also available for funding, such as cross-fencing, tanks and troughs, solar pumps, creek restoration, and weed management, if associated with the program goals.

The Natural Resources Conservation Service provides leadership in a partnership effort to help people conserve, maintain, and improve our natural resources and environment.

An Equal Opportunity Provider and Employer