

MORNING SESSION (9-12:30)

Livermore Community Center – Cresta Blanca Ballroom, North

(9-9:20am) Welcome & Introductions, Overview of Workshop – Rachelle Hedges (Alameda County RCD), Jackie Charbonneau (NRCS)

(9:20-9:35am) Overview of the benefits & value of grazing and rancher stewardship on local rangelands – Sheila Barry (UC Cooperative Extension)

(9:35-10:00am) Overview of a typical cattle operation in the Bay Area – Sheila Barry (UC Cooperative Extension), Ned Wood (Wood Livestock, LLC) & Paul Banke (WP Cattle Co.)

- Ranching Vocabulary
- Overview of enterprises

(10:00-10:25am) The calendar of operations for a typical East Bay ranching outfit – Sheila Barry (UC Cooperative Extension), Ned Wood (Wood Livestock, LLC) & Paul Banke (WP Cattle Co.)

(10:25-10:40am) Break

(10:40am-12:00pm) The calendar of operations for a typical East Bay ranching outfit (continued) – Sheila Barry (UC Cooperative Extension), Ned Wood (Wood Livestock, LLC) & Paul Banke (WP Cattle Co.)

(12-12:30pm) LUNCH

- Meet local ranchers and continue Q&A

(12:30-1pm) CARAVAN TO FIELD SITE

AFTERNOON SESSION (1-3pm)

Field-based

(1-2:15pm) Daily Ranching Concerns– Sheila Barry (UC Cooperative Extension), Ned Wood (Wood Livestock, LLC) & Paul Banke (WP Cattle Co.), Jackie Charbonneau (NRCS)

- The type and breadth of activities ranchers must undertake in a day or week
- Rancher and animal interactions with agency staff, the public, and animals
- Infrastructure, Maintenance, and Enhancements
- View a working operation
 - (Vaccines and pink eye treatment)

(2:15-2:45pm) Question & Answer Session – All Instructors & other rancher attendees

(2:45-3pm) Evaluations