

Alameda Creek Watershed Forum

Restoration in the Alameda Creek Watershed: Challenges and Solutions

Thursday, November 6, 2014

Castro Valley Library: 3600 Norbridge Ave., Castro Valley (walking distance from BART)

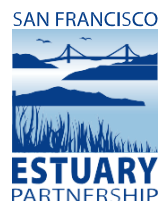

Register at EventBrite: <http://www.eventbrite.com/o/alameda-creek-watershed-forum-410831832?s=29826803>

12:30	Registration/ Networking/ Self-guided Walk at Castro Valley Creek Restoration Site
1:00	Welcome	Elke Rank – Water Resources Planner, Zone 7 Water Agency; Chair, acwForum
1:10	Friends of Sausal Creek: Past, Present, and Future	Paul Frank – Board Member, Friends of Sausal Creek; Ecological Engineer, NewFields
1:30	Permitting Creek Projects: The Castro Valley Creek Example	Paul Modrell – Environmental Specialist, San Francisco Estuary Partnership
1:50	Role and Responsibility of a Restoration Nursery	Diana Benner – Principal Vegetation Ecologist, The Watershed Nursery
2:10	The RiVR Index: A New Method to Set Goals and Measure Success in Riparian Restoration	Phil Stevens – Executive Director, Urban Creeks Council
2:30	Networking/ Informal Creek Walk/ Info Tables	Info Tables: ACRCO/NRCS, UCC, TBC3
3:10	Enhancing Regional Capacity for Habitat Project Tracking and Assessment	Sandra Scoggin – Assistant Coordinator, San Francisco Bay Joint Venture
3:20	San Antonio Creek Lessons Learned	Sarah Blain – Engineer, San Francisco Public Utilities Commission
3:40	Panel: Restoration Lessons Learned	Diana Benner, Sarah Blain, Paul Frank, Paul Modrell
4:30	Closing	Elke Rank – Water Resources Planner, Zone 7 Water Agency; Chair, acwForum

Afternoon Snacks and Beverages provided by:

Additional Support:

Community information table available for handouts and information on restoration-related projects!