

SPREADING COMPOST ON RANGELANDS

For farmers, ranchers, conservation planners, and practitioners

Join the Alameda County Resource Conservation District and its partners for a discussion about spreading compost on rangelands. We will look at costs, compost quality, and lessons learned from demonstration carbon farming projects. We will hear from ranchers about their experiences applying compost through CDFA's Healthy Soils Program Demonstration and Incentives projects.

RSVP:

Click here to register.

Link: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/spreading-compost-on-rangelands-registration-136041308215>

This event will be held on Zoom. Details will be sent upon registration.

Questions?

stephanie.lew@acr.cd.org | 925-453-3859

FEBRUARY 9, 2021 3PM-5PM PST

Virtual event

ORGANIZER

PRESENTERS

ALAMEDA COUNTY

RESOURCE CONSERVATION DISTRICT

STOPWASTE
at home • at work • at school

Calhoun Ranch

Paulo Farms

Carbon Cycle Institute

COLLABORATORS

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA
MERCED

USDA NRCS
Natural Resources Conservation Service