

ALAMEDA COUNTY RESOURCE CONSERVATION DISTRICT
Making Conservation Happen in Alameda County

3585 GREENVILLE ROAD, SUITE 2
LIVERMORE, CA 94550
www.acrcd.org

PHONE: 925-371-0154
FAX: 925-371-0155

CONSERVATION COMMITTEE

Conference Call: 480-660-5318 Enter 331576

4:00 PM Tuesday, November 21, 2022 in preparation for November 28, 2022 Board Meeting

No Conservation Committee Meeting next month due to the holidays.

MEETING AGENDA

Updates:

- Application completed and submitted to the USDA Land, Capital, and Market Access Grant Program. (Courtney Coon and Colleen Hotchkiss)
- CDFA Pollinator Habitat Program grant application to be submitted by Wednesday 11/23 deadline. (Colleen Hotchkiss)

Discussion Items:

CDFA Block grants

- CDFA Healthy Soils Incentives Program (HSP) proposed block grant pilot. Draft RFA is set to be released in December, 2022. (Colleen Hotchkiss)
- CDFA currently seeking input from RCDs in developing a block grant program for urban agriculture. CDFA is currently planning to release the RFP in March, 2023. (Colleen Hotchkiss)

NRCS

-

The Alameda County Resource Conservation District provides leadership in the County and region in natural resources conservation and agricultural issues through education, outreach, partnerships and funding.